

WELCOME!

2012–13 Guide to Life at Yale School of Drama

The information on these pages will hopefully answer some of your questions and provide hints on getting settled at Yale School of Drama.

New Haven is about 1 1/2 hours northeast of Manhattan and three hours southwest of Boston. There are hourly commuter trains to New York City, bus and train service to Boston and Washington, DC, and flights to major airports from Tweed-New Haven Airport.

As you become familiar with the campus and the city, you will find parks, beaches, and museums to explore and festivals, concerts, and theatre of all types to suit your interests. For more information visit yale.edu/livingnh.

Getting Around, Getting Settled

DRIVING

FROM THE SOUTH: Take I-95 to EXIT 47 (flyover bridge) marked Downtown New Haven, Route 34. Proceed to the third exit. At the traffic light; take a right onto York Street. Proceed 2.5 blocks.

Also from the south, take the Merritt-Wilbur Cross Parkway to EXIT 57. Drive East on Derby Avenue (Route 34) for five miles to the fork of Derby Avenue and George Street (three blocks past the Yale Athletic Fields). Bear right onto George Street and continue for eight blocks to York Street. Turn left onto York Street.

FROM UPPER NEW ENGLAND: Take I-91 to Exit 1 (Downtown New Haven, Route 34). Proceed to the third exit; coming off the exit, get into the far right lane. At the traffic light; take a right onto York Street.

FROM NEW YORK STATE AREAS: take I-84 east to Route 34 South and bear right onto George Street and take a left onto York Street.

AIRPORTS

TWEED-NEW HAVEN AIRPORT, flytweed.com, is located three miles from the University, near East Haven (I-95 to EXIT 50) and is also accessible by city bus via the G line.

BRADLEY INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT (bradleyairport.com) located north of Hartford, approximately fifty-five minutes by car from downtown New Haven. Most of the major airlines fly out of Bradley, making it a good, convenient alternative to New York area airports.

AIRPORT SHUTTLE SERVICES

A shuttle bus, with stops, takes 2 hours 40 minutes to JFK, 2 hours 25 minutes to LaGuardia, and 2 hours and 40 minutes to Newark. The ride to Bradley is approximately 1 hour.

CONNECTICUT LIMOUSINE, ctlimo.com, offers service to Bradley, LaGuardia, JFK, and Newark airports and makes several stops on the way. They offer reduced rates with a Yale ID at the Phelps Gate pick-up location (285 College Street, between Chapel and Elm Streets).

GO AIRPORT SHUTTLE, goairportshuttle.com, 866.284.3247, also offers a special Yale rate and has four campus pick-up locations: Divinity School, 409 Prospect Street; School of Nursing, 100 Church Street South; Science Park, 25 Prospect Street; and Phelps Gate. Service is by reservation only.

PARKING

Yale Parking information for the academic year is available on the website of Yale Parking Service (yale.edu/transportationoptions). Online applications are available on the website in July. Available parking space is limited; therefore, applications should be downloaded and returned to their office as soon as possible. All assignments are made on a first-come, first-served basis.

There are also several public parking garages and metered spots in the campus/downtown area. Meters accept nickels, dimes, quarters, and the refillable New Haven Card which can be purchased from several downtown merchants or online (newhavencard.net).

TOURS

You may want to take a tour of the Yale campus to familiarize yourself with the buildings around you. Yale campus tours leave at 10:30AM and 2PM Monday–Friday and at 1:30PM on weekends from the Visitor Information Center located at 149 Elm Street, across from the New Haven Green. The tours last approximately one hour and conclude at the Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library. No reservations or tickets are necessary, and tours are free of charge. If you would rather tour the campus on your own, you may obtain a copy of the Walking Tour pamphlet at the Visitors Center, which includes a map, a suggested route, and a brief history of the University.

TRAINS

METRO-NORTH RAILROAD

800.638.7646, mta.info/mnr, provides frequent service between New York and New Haven only.

AMTRAK

800.872.7245, amtrak.com provides service between Boston and Washington, DC as well as other destinations.

Both train lines depart and arrive at UNION STATION on Union Avenue. There are usually cabs waiting to meet incoming trains to pick up passengers on a first-come, first-served basis. It is approximately a $10 ride to central campus. Union Station is a healthy walk from campus, but if you have luggage, it's better to take a cab or the Yale Shuttle Bus yale.edu/parkingandtransit/shuttle 203.432.6330, which offers service to and from the train station.

TAXIS

In New Haven, cabs are not hailed or flagged down. You must call the dispatcher.

METRO TAXI, 203.777.7777

QUICK TAXI, 203.777.7778

YELLOW TAXI, 203.777.7770

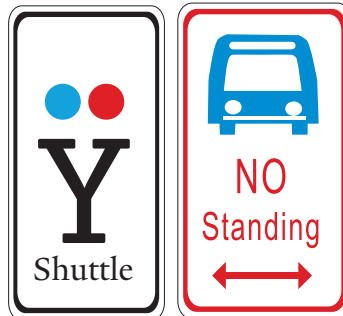

BUSES

CONNECTICUT TRANSIT serves New Haven and neighboring towns. Bus stops are located every 2–3 blocks along the bus route. One-way fare is $1.25, payable in exact change (coins or $1 bills). Daily and monthly passes as well as schedules are available at cttransit.com, on-board, or at the CT Transit Sales Outlet at the New Haven Green on the corner of Chapel and Church Streets.

YALE SHUTTLE provides day and night transportation between the University, the East Rock neighborhood, and the New Haven train station for students, faculty and staff. This FREE service runs year-round with the exception of major holidays. The real-time bus locator can be found at yale.edu/transportationoptions. If you cannot safely go to one of the listed stops, call 203.432.6330. The dispatcher will radio one of the buses to go off route and pick you up. You can download the Trans Loc app to your Smartphone.

Long-distance bus companies with service to New Haven include Greyhound Bus (greyhound.com, 203.772.2470) and Peter Pan Bus (peterpanbus.com 800.343.9999). Buses arrive and depart from Union Station where taxis are readily available for travel to campus.

LOOK FOR THESE YALE SHUTTLE AND CT TRANSIT SIGNS TO FIND THE NEAREST BUS

BIKING

Biking can be a good way to get to and from campus and around the New Haven area. Do not lock your bike onto railings of a handicap access ramp, building entrances, or stair rails; it will be impounded by the Yale Police, and you will be charged to retrieve it. You can register your bike by recording its serial number with the University Police. Call 203.432.8778 for more information. Security information will be available at fall registration.

ZIPCAR

Yale University has partnered with Zipcar to offer students and employees discounted yearly memberships. To join, you must have a valid drivers license (from any country) and a reasonably clean driving record. To take advantage of Yale's affiliation with Zipcar, visit zipcar.com/yale.

SAFETY

BLUE LIGHTS

A network of some 200 exterior phones is installed around the campus. All of these phones have the capability of emergency contact with the Yale Police, either by pressing a single emergency button or by dialing 111. In order to make the phones more visible day and night, blue lights are installed above or near each phone location. You may also use these phones to call campus numbers.

DON'T WALK ALONE!

A Walking Companion Service is available 24 hours per day. Call 203.432.9255 or 203.785.5555 to get home safely..

COMPUTERS AND INTERNET

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

SERVICES (ITS) provides computing and communications services and support for students, faculty, staff, alumni, and others. ITS manages a variety of University systems including email. (yale.edu/its)

YSD INFO WEB PAGE (ysdinfo.yale.edu) This page presents detailed information about setting up your computer. The new student page can also be accessed at the website.

WIRELESS NETWORK ACCESS is available in all the primary School of Drama buildings and other public areas of the Yale campus.

Yale University does not offer high-speed internet access off-campus. You can obtain internet service from one of the outside providers in the area, Comcast or AT&T (see page 4).

The ROBERTSON COMPUTER LAB is located in the basement of 205 Park Street. The facility is open to School of Drama students twenty-four hours a day, except when reserved for workshops, classes, and school-related projects. It features eight Dell workstations, two flatbed scanners, and one laser printer/copier. Software in the lab includes Adobe Creative Suite, Autocad, Microsoft Office Professional, and VectorWorks.

Also available is the DIGITAL MEDIA CENTER FOR THE ARTS (DMCA) at 149 York Street.

COPYING

Yale School of Drama has copiers at 222 York, 205 Park, and 149 York Streets for school and business use only. For personal business, try TYCO on Broadway or Allegra at 943 Grand Avenue. For large School of Drama jobs, consult the Business Office (149 York Street) before submitting a job.

DISABILITIES

THE RESOURCE OFFICE ON DISABILITIES, yale.edu/rod facilitates accommodations for students with disabilities who register with and have appropriate documentation on file in the Resource Office. Early planning is critical. The Resource Office also provides assistance to students with temporary disabilities. General information inquiries are welcome from students and members of the Yale community and from the public. The mailing address is

Resource Office on Disabilities, Yale University, 35 Broadway (rear entrance), Room 222, PO Box
208305, New Haven CT 6520-
8305.

Office hours are Monday through Friday, 8:30AM–4:30PM;
(203.432.2324).

GYMS

The Payne Whitney Gym, (yalebulldogs.cstv.com) located on Tower Parkway behind the Yale Bookstore, is one of the largest gyms in the world. It has basketball, volleyball, and racquetball courts; a fencing salon; golf practice cages; wrestling room; Nautilus equipment; indoor/outdoor running tracks; two pools; rowing tanks; saunas and steam rooms. It also maintains track facilities at Yale Bowl, tennis courts, golf courses, an ice-hockey rink, and a sailing center. As a student, you are automatically a member.

HEALTH CARE

YALE HEALTH CENTER (yale.edu/yuhs) at 55 Lock Street offers a wide variety of health care services for students and other members of the Yale community including routine appointments and a round-the-clock acute care clinic. They coordinate and provide payment for the services provided at the Yale Health Center, as well as for emergency treatment, off-site specialty services, inpatient hospital care, and other ancillary services.

PHARMACY

The Yale Health Center has a discount pharmacy with significant savings on prescription and over-the-counter medicines. Rite Aid Pharmacy is on Church Street; Walgreen's is on York Street—all within walking distance of the School.

OPTICIANS

Carofano, 1215 Chapel Street and Kennedy & Perkins Opticians, 80 Whitney Avenue, are members of Yale Health and will honor your Yale Health discount.

HOUSING

GRADUATE HOUSING is administered out of two offices located on the ground floor of Helen Hadley Hall, 420 Temple

Street, a graduate dormitory. Office hours are Monday-Friday from 9AM–4PM.

Applications for the graduate apartments are available online, yale.edu/gradhousing

OFF-CAMPUS HOUSING

Refer to ysdinfo.yale.edu/housing-new-haven for apartment realty listings.

LIBRARIES

The Yale Library system (library.yale.edu) boasts over 8 million books, journals, records, tapes, etc. The two main libraries are Sterling Memorial Library (SML) on High Street and the Bass Library which is underground across from SML. SML is the largest, containing the most volumes in the stacks on 15 floors. The Bass Library keeps the most frequently used books and reserve material. Beinecke Book and Manuscript Library, which houses rare books and documents, is on Wall Street.

The Robert B. Haas Family Arts Library (library.yale.edu/arts) at 180 York Street comprises the merged holdings of the former Art & Architecture and Drama Libraries, the Arts of the Book Collection, and the staff of the Visual Resources Collection, making it the primary collection for the study of art, architecture, and drama production at Yale. Currently, the drama collections have approximately 20,000 volumes plus photographic prints, production books, scrapbooks, and ephemera.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

The Office of International Students and Scholars (OISS) (yale.edu/oiss) coordinates services and support to Yale's international students, faculty, staff and their dependents. OISS staff provides assistance with employment, immigration, personal and cultural adjustment, and family and financial matters, as well as serve as a source of general information about living at Yale and in New Haven. This office is located at 421 Temple Street, and is open Monday through Friday from 8:30AM–5PM.

getting around, getting settled

MAIL

All students have unlocked mailboxes at the UT. You may also rent a locked box at Yale Station, which is located at the corner of Elm and High Streets.

United Parcel Service (UPS) and FedEx deliver regularly to the School of Drama. You may self-address your packages to:

222 York Street
PO Box 208244
New Haven, CT 06520-8244

LOCKERS

There are a limited number of lockers in the basement of the University Theatre (UT) building that are available for storing gear. Contact Rich Abrams at the School of Drama, 203.432.1593.

MOVING

U-HAUL CENTER, uhaul.com is located at 116 Whalley Avenue (203.562.3177).

STUDENT LIFE

THE SCHOOL OF DRAMA STUDENT GOVERNMENT (SDSG), sdsg@yale.edu, strives to enhance the educational experience of each student by being a forum for students's ideas and concerns and acting as a liaison between students and the faculty and administration; and by promoting educational and social activities that help foster a strong sense of community within Yale School of Drama.
GPSCY

The Graduate and Professional Student Center at Yale, yale.edu/gpss, 204 York Street, is a social center for students in all of Yale's graduate and professional schools, and is operated by the Graduate & Professional Student Senate (GPSS). The center includes Gryphon's Pub, pool tables, and a big screen TV. Organizations and departmental groups may arrange to hold their events at the GPSCY.

McDOUGAL CENTER

The McDougal Center, yale.edu/graduateschool/mcdougal, 320 York Street, Hall of Graduate Studies, sponsors programs for graduate student life and professional development. The Center welcomes the participation of graduate and professional students, postdoctoral fellows, faculty and staff throughout the University. It houses the offices of Student Services, Graduate Career Services, and Teaching Fellow Preparation and Development, as well as the Resource Library. It has rooms for use by individuals, graduate student organizations, and departmental events and conferences. The student-run Blue Dog Café, in the Common Room of the McDougal Center, offers an informal place to study, socialize, or catch a quick bite. Visit the McDougal Center website for information and a variety of links on graduate student life.

YALE CABARET

Yale Cabaret yalecabaret.org is a 100 seat theatre/restaurant run entirely by School of Drama students, and produces an eclectic season of 20 shows. The Cabaret serves as an arena for YSD students to challenge and develop all of their creative senses. Here unique opportunities are available for actors to stage manage, stage managers to direct, directors to TD, TD's to write, writers to design, designers to direct, and directors to do something (anything) other than direct, and so on ad infinitum. The Cabaret also provides students the opportunity to develop professional and personal relationships that are maintained after graduation. You will receive detailed information at registration. If you are in New Haven in the summer, you may want to see one of the Summer Cabaret performances (summer.cabaret.org).

The Arts

THEATRE

Yale Repertory Theatre (valerep.org) is located on the corner of York and Chapel Streets. You are entitled to complimentary tickets to all performances. Yale School of Drama (drama.yale.edu), of course, has many performances and projects which you will attend, and also features Yale Cabaret. Long Wharf Theatre (longwharf.org) is on Sargent Drive. The Shubert Theater (capa.com/newhaven) features established productions with casts from road companies. Hartford Stage (hartfordstage.org) is only a 35–40 minute drive north of New Haven. Long Wharf Theatre and Hartford Stage offer complimentary tickets to Yale School of Drama students for all preview performances. Please call the Yale Rep box office at 203.432.1234 to reserve these tickets

FILM

Criterion Cinemas is located downtown on Temple Street. There is also Cine 1,2,3,4 (I-91, Exit 7), and Rave Motion Pictures in North Haven (I-91 North Exit 9) and at the Connecticut Post Mall in Milford (I-95, Exit 39). Yale also has a couple of on-campus film societies.

SUMMER FESTIVALS

The International Festival of Arts and Ideas takes place on the New Haven Green and at various venues around town every summer for fifteen days in mid-June. Most of the free events on The Green fall under the ‘arts’ side of the festival; concerts, street performers, opera, theater, and dance. Lectures and discussions on a variety of subjects make up the ‘ideas’ portion of the Festival. Running during the same time as Arts and Ideas is the in-your-face Ideat Village, an arts and music festival running in three venues downtown. The Elm Shakespeare Company presents plays free of charge, during the summer in Edgerton Park during the Elm Shakespeare Festival.

Rounding out the season each August, the New Haven Jazz Festival performs a concert series on The Green.

GALLERIES AND MUSEUMS

The Yale Art Gallery (artgallery.yale.edu) on York and Chapel, and the Yale Center for British Art (ycba.yale.edu) on Chapel are both worth a visit. The Collection of Musical Instruments (yale.edu/musicalinstruments) at 15 Hillhouse Avenue boasts an incredible collection of bizarre antique instruments. The Peabody Museum of Natural History (peabody.yale.edu) at the corner of Whitney and Sagem Streets houses eighteen million specimens illustrating the history of the earth from fossil time to the present. One hall on the first floor is devoted to dinosaurs and features the Pulitzer-Prize winning 110-foot-long “Age of Reptiles” mural.

Connecticut Children’s Museum at 22 Wall Street (childrensbuilding.org) offers hands-on learning for younger children. The John Slade Ely House (elyhouse.org) at 51 Trumbull Street has temporary and permanent exhibits. The New Haven Museum (newhavenmuseum.org) at 114 Whitney Avenue houses early Connecticut paintings, photographs, maps, and other historical items. There are also many galleries out of walking distance which are worthwhile. Check the local newspaper for current exhibits and showings.
